

June

2025

Coles Summer Reading and Writing Grades 3,4 and 5

Growing as Readers!

Dear Parents and Kids,

Reading is fun and enjoyable! Use this literacy activity calendar this summer to light the fire for reading and give you a head start as a rising student at Coles! Reading and writing will open up a whole new word for you!

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
				¹² Last Day of School!	¹³ Have an adult help you to get a library card. Check out the online catalogue and select a book	¹⁴ Take a trip to the library with an adult. Check out a book on your level.
¹⁵ Get a box and personalize it for a book basket. (Or you can use a basket.) Take a picture of it and share your reading plans with a buddy!	¹⁶ Add some pencils, writing paper, and crayons to your box. Write a letter to yourself about your summer plans.	¹⁷ Select a chapter book. Read the back to decide if it's a book you are interested in. Place the chapter book in your book box.	¹⁸ Read two chapters of your choice book. Mark your spot with a bookmark.	¹⁹ Read two more chapters of your book.	²⁰ Have an adult log on to VSLA.org. Do a search for the VA choice readers. Make a list for your grade level.	²¹ Have an adult log on to Storylineonline.net Enjoy a story that suits your level.

22	23	24	25	26	27	28
	With an adult Visit Guys read at https://jonscieszka.com/guys-read List some books a guy might like to read and consider reading one!	With an adult Visit Amightygirl.com List some books a girl might like to read and consider reading one!	Go to the library. Check out one of the books from "Guys read" or "Amighty girl"	Read two or more chapters from your choice book. Write about what's happening!	Read two more chapters from your book.	Read two more chapters from your book.
29 Finish up your book and write about your favorite part.	30 Finish up any writing!	.	.	.		